Probably going to need to be after the first of the year. I do love Minnesota in January!

Following up on discussions at our last visit/

Would like to invite you and Tyson representatives to Minnesota to visit with our CEO Greg Page and introduce you to our new CEO David McMillan. In addition, we could follow up on items discussed with Tim, explore opportunities around data sharing and review grain/oilseed markets.

If you agreeable, would like to get some idea of your availability. Would the period between Thanksgiving and Christmas suit or after the first of the year?

Appreciate if you can select a few dates and will match them up with availability on this side.

Best regards..

LPR
